enforce	more police
reform	He has to find out the sources of crime reform	Change the gun law.
enforce	More police.
reform	If crime is an actual virus, the city of Addison should try to invent a vaccine. But, as crime is usually not a virus, there are multiple measures Addison could take to reduce crime, e.g. developing neighbourhoods by building new schools, public places like parks and community centres and a change in local politics.
reform	Identify and secure the places where the crime rate is high, educate the people in these places, reform	Educate and inform all people about crime, the places where a lot of crime is happening should be identified, at the same time the people who are victims of crime should be empowered and supported, they should get help to secure their homes, reform	Implementing preventive measures
both	Implementing preventive measures (actions) and doing better police work by controlling more.
both	Perhaps some level of police patrol and/or CCTV in areas that are prone to crime (e.g. dark alleys) and most definitely street lights enforce	??? feels like he'd be the type of person to suggest neighbourhood watch/militia. I'd suggest for police to handle said matter because it's too dangerous for civilians to fend for themselves WITHOUT accidentally hurting other people police is trained in restraining/talking down violent criminals, civilians are not both	More police forces to fight current crime and better strategies to prevent new crime. Also, new rules and laws would help to reduce crime, but this depends on the cause of the problem.
reform	Analysieren, weshalb die Kriminalität so sehr angestiegen ist. Gezielt Hilfsprogramme für die Täterschichten starten. Entweder benötigen Menschen finanzielle Unterstützung oder sinnvolle Beschäftigung bzw. eine Perspektive für die Zukunft.
enforce	Polizei muss härter durchgreifen. Strengere Gesetze müssen erlassen werden.
reform	Improving the ratio through social measures such as creating educational institutions, youth houses, creating jobs, etc.
enforce	Addison should increase security measures to reduce crime. Surveillance cameras could be installed in public places or more patrol cars could be deployed with responsible police officers.
neither	Addison could ban alcohol lol reform	detect what kind of crime it is, make an effort to reduce poverty enforce

The most dangerous places should be analyzed and security measures could be increased in these places. The city must motivate its citizens to stick together and introduce neighborhood watches, for example, so that the city's police officers are not overwhelmed
