solution
Hire more police
It needs to fix whatever systemic issues it has causing the crime Support social programs and initiatives that get people out of bad situations, poverty, addiction, etc. He can also join his local neighborhood watch, if one exists, or look to form one if it does Locate the root source of the crime, and initiate public programs to target these sources. For example, if drug use is prevalent in a community, start outreach programs that target users before they begin, or help addicts safely get clean and sober. For violent crimes, increase the level of punishment in order to deter others figure out the root causes and address them. Is it drugs? Is it that people do not have jobs? what is the underlying issue and fix It would depend on the demographics especially income levels.
More background is needed, but generally more policing and hire more undercover police .hire more people that can educate the criminals that leading a productive way of life will be batter Addison needs to identify what type of crime and which neighborhoods are being impacted the most. The current statement seems like fear mongering and doesn't hint at any I'm not sure there really is a problem. The person seems a bit unhinged and unreliable, and without more information, I can't really make a judgment about what needs to change. I suspect that more community spirit and services would help in just about Add more police.
Increase the presence of police around the city Open his world view a little broader and see what areas of low crime are doing in order to reduce it.
Addison needs to invest in crime-prevention tactics, including working to help its citizens escape poverty.
Have better policies of reporting crime and streetlights.
Review crime statistics data to see what types of crime are increasing, then implement measures aimed at reducing those form a neighborhood watch investigate the cause of the crime.
They could increase jobs or try to supply work for youth in order to keep people out of trouble and disincentivize crime.
They need to see what is causing the rampant increase and crime and find a solution to it Addison should work to identify the causes of the crimes being committed and work on helping solve those social problems.
Police need to be placed at placed of high crime.
Crime has been on the rise over the last three years almost everywhere, so Addison should focus on community outreach and education as well as improving access to resources and help Maybe talk to the city counsel or the mayor at town hall.
to gather local people with similar opinions to make a statment More policing

neither	It sounds like they have a bad problem It's impossible to say based on the information. I would need to know what type of crime and who/what is being targeted. There neither	is no good answer based on what this person is saying.
	Introduce more programs to help those who are impoverished.
	Introduce more mental health options for its citizens. Have a reform	strong network of after-school programs for children.
enforce	They need to step up law enforcement efforts particularly to Addison needs to get more cops on the street because the thugs don't fear the authorities. They need to legislate stiffer penalties for violent crime and make sure that repeat offenders serve long sentences. They need to make the punishment a deterrent to violent crime. That means they need to make sure they elect enforce	judges who don't put violent criminals back on the street.
	They could increase policing in certain areas, they can also try to look at what types of crimes are occurring and try to stop it at the source, for example if there's a lot of theft because people both	are lower income they could increase social programs and try to Make crimes punishable with no "catch and realease" If you enforce	commmit a crime you can't have bail Addison needs to look at the root causes of the crimes that are being committed in the city. Is there rampant inequality, high reform	unemployment rates, and divisions among its citizens?
	Be more aware of the times crimes happen and add more law enforce	enforcement around that time.
	Well, I sound a lot like current run democratic party run cities in the United states like, San Francisco CA, Portland Oregon, and Detroit Michigan or Chicago Illinois. First I would get rid of of all the current leadership who cowed to terrorists/anarchists who decided it was a great idea to defund the police and did so. Then I would elect/replace such leadership who have the heads on straight, and re-instate a new police force that is tough on crime, enforce	with a new city District Attorney (DA), that feels the same way.
	In order to reduce crime, we must look at the root cause of what is causing the crime to begin with. In some cases, violent crime can be prevented by increasing police presence in the enforce	community. Response times are critical when situations escalate neither	everyone should be aware about the crime.
	One way to start would be to increase policing, that might help with the immediate problem. However, providing education and both	job training opportunities can help reduce crime by providing individuals with the skills and resources they need to become enforce	Crack down on harder punishment and install curfew Arrest criminals and aid in social programs so people who may both	commit crimes do not need to do so. neither	Reduce violent crime neither	Addison needs to figure out what is the cause to the crime rising reform	in the past three years, it can't just be a coincidence. Find the neither	Prevent violent people from committing crimes reform	He needs to find the root cause.
reioiiii	ne needs to find the foot cause.

-
reform	Invest in education and social services.
reform	Petition his local government to take action.
reform	Determine what s causing the increase, then stop it.
reform	Find ways to help people with food, shelter, and mental health both	Find the balance between repression and prevention.
enforce	Increase policing patrol Implement programs that will help people get off the street by reform	helping them find jobs or housing.
	They should make sure that things are monitored in the enforce	community and that law enforcement is ready and trained to neither	Provide more statistics on the crime rate and also use proper better training police and offering places for people who need it to be rehabilitated
reform	0 00 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10
enforce	Better training for police, fix up the city enforce	catch the crooks and keep them in jail emorce	Encourage community participation among it's citizens for the noithar	creation of a neighborhood watch.
neither enforce	-
emorce	Institute a city police or security outfit to watch the city
	They could create community outreach programs to help people c	feel pride in the city that they live in. If they feel pride and a reform	sense of community they may want to protect it and keep it Addison needs to increase police presence and have severe enforce	consequences for offenders.
	Be stricter on repeat offenders, establish a mental health facility enforce	and have more cops patrolling.
enforce	Review the current policing policies and the enforcement of neither	Move to another place.
neither	Figure out what crimes are common and in which areas.
	The City of Addison should first review crime statistics to see how they compare to informal feedback from this resident. Once reform	they have have identify they types and frequency of the crimes reform	Move away from the focus on poverty, focus on gun control.
enforce	Have more cops
enforce	They need a larger police force I think more cameras would be helpful as well as organizing enforce	neighborhood watch and reporting efforst.
enforce	Increase police presence I'd say clean up the neighborhood, get jobs and shops and gentrify the neighborhood. It needs community based policing both	and input from government officials, police and citizens.
2001	Addison needs to stay away from the source of crime by not neither	holding alcohol in his hands and drinking (or a molotov) and reform	Invest more in education and rehabilitation for prisoners.
enforce	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	Be tough on crime and the causes of crime.
enforce	Put more patrols in the area.
enforce	It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent crime neither	See violence as a priority.

police force and judges who will hold criminals accountable for their actions and not keep them from punishment that the law Start off with asking what the police force is doing with their enforce time if one exist. Plot what crime is happening the majority of enforce Hire additional police officers. Install surveillance cameras. Rampant crime at the heart of it comes from unrest of the people. That unrest can come from lack of basic living essentials, reform political concerns, unfair treatment and the like. Fix those things Give opportunities that make people's lives better so they don't feel the urge to turn to crime neither Establish some neighborhood watch programs to start. Neither Collect data to determine levels and areas of concern. Addison needs to hire more police officers and study what enforce mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentany! In other words, it is good that our cit		Addison needs to have a sufficiently staffed and not understaffed enforce their actions and not keep them from punishment that the law Start off with asking what the police force is doing with their enforce time if one exist. Plot what crime is happening the majority of enforce Hire additional police officers. Install surveillance cameras. Rampant crime at the heart of it comes from unrest of the people. That unrest can come from lack of basic living essentials, reform political concerns, unfair treatment and the like. Fix those things Give opportunities that make people's lives better so they don't feel the urge to turn to crime neither Establish some neighborhood watch programs to start. Collect data to determine levels and areas of concern. Addison needs to hire more police officers and study what mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for enforce those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens a		· Start off with asking what the police force is doing with their time if one exist. Plot what crime is happening the majority of enforce Hire additional police officers. Install surveillance cameras. Rampant crime at the heart of it comes from unrest of the people. That unrest can come from lack of basic living essentials, reform political concerns, unfair treatment and the like. Fix those things Give opportunities that make people's lives better so they don't feel the urge to turn to crime neither Establish some neighborhood watch programs to start. Ollect data to determine levels and areas of concern. Addison needs to hire more police officers and study what enforce mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police offend and commit crimes enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. It needs to increase its police force. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well bas an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know, Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know, Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know, Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentany. In other words, it is goo	enforce	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · enforce time if one exist. Plot what crime is happening the majority of enforce Hire additional police officers. Install surveillance cameras. Rampant crime at the heart of it comes from unrest of the people. That unrest can come from lack of basic living essentials, reform political concerns, unfair treatment and the like. Fix those things Give opportunities that make people's lives better so they don't feel the urge to turn to crime neither establish some neighborhood watch programs to start. Collect data to determine levels and areas of concern. Addison needs to hire more police officers and study what mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for those who offend and commit crimes enforce those who offend and commit crimes enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for the disadvantaged and poor enforce It needs to increase its police force. It needs to increase its police force. It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this no idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by It hink there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing sol The only d enforce Hire additional police officers. Install surveillance cameras. Rampant crime at the heart of it comes from unrest of the people. That unrest can come from lack of basic living essentials, reform political concerns, unfair treatment and the like. Fix those things Give opportunities that make people's lives better so they don't feel the urge to turn to crime neither Establish some neighborhood watch programs to start. neither Collect data to determine levels and areas of concern. Addison needs to hire more police officers and study what enforce mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police meforce More police The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to enco	enforce Rampant crime at the heart of it comes from unrest of the people. That unrest can come from lack of basic living essentials, political concerns, unfair treatment and the like. Fix those things Give opportunities that make people's lives better so they don't reform feel the urge to turn to crime neither Establish some neighborhood watch programs to start. Addison needs to hire more police officers and study what enforce mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police enforce More police enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana dwill instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respec
people. That unrest can come from lack of basic living essentials, reform political concerns, unfair treatment and the like. Fix those things Give opportunities that make people's lives better so they don't reform feel the urge to turn to crime neither Establish some neighborhood watch programs to start. neither Collect data to determine levels and areas of concern. Addison needs to hire more police officers and study what enforce mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police officers and study what enforce those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police enforce More police offere. The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they need to "in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing meither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need t	cinorec	· reform political concerns, unfair treatment and the like. Fix those things Give opportunities that make people's lives better so they don't feel the urge to turn to crime neither		·
Give opportunities that make people's lives better so they don't reform feel the urge to turn to crime neither Establish some neighborhood watch programs to start. neither Collect data to determine levels and areas of concern. Addison needs to hire more police officers and study what enforce mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce. It needs to increase its police force. enforce It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this no idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against having these qualities. These people	reform reform feel the urge to turn to crime neither	retorm	•
neither Establish some neighborhood watch programs to start. neither Collect data to determine levels and areas of concern. Addison needs to hire more police officers and study what enforce mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. It needs to increase its police force. No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce	reform neither Collect data to determine levels and areas of concern. Addison needs to hire more police officers and study what mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Neither I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
Addison needs to hire more police officers and study what mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. enforce It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce enforce mechanics are contributing the most to the crime increase. Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. enforce It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Neither I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce	Herener
Addison needs to ensure a tighter and strict punishment for enforce those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. Enforce It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce	enforce enforce those who offend and commit crimes enforce More police enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. enforce It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Paddison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.	CHIOTEC
enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Peliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce	enforce
enforce The need to increase security patrols and police visibility in the Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they need to" in violent neighborhoods. I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Pliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
Raise taxes on the wealthy and use the money for services for reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. enforce It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Penforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Honestly, I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Peliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce reform the disadvantaged and poor enforce Addison needs to increase its police force. enforce It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Neither I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce	emorce enforce	roform	•
enforce It needs to increase its police force in order to prevent this neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. 1 don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce		- · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · neither No idea. Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Peliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce		· Find out why the crimes are being committed and seek to prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. neither I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Peliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce prevent those circumstances from happening again. You don't reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. neither I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Peliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.	neither reform stop crime by punishing the perpetrators, you stop crime by I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. neither I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Peliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
I think there should be more funding for social services, as well both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Neither I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Peliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.	roform both as an increase in resources for law enforcement to be more Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they need to" in violent neighborhoods. Neither I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Neither Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.	reiorm Hire more cops with "fatigue" and allow them to "do what they enforce need to" in violent neighborhoods. Neither I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Neither Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.	h - 4 h enforce neither I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Peither Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.	DOLII neither I don't know. Purge it via neighborhood watches. Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Peither Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
Honestly, I don't know which state this city, Addison, is located. He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Reliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
He is talking about crime, and I am wondering if Addison is speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Reliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.	neither speaking from state a that has legal marijuana. Usually when a state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
state has legalized marijuana, the cartels stop providing the marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. neither Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
marijuana and will instead focus on smuggling fentanyl. In other words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
words, it is good that our citizens are now currently purchasing neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. Neither Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
neither marijuana legally and pay taxes by doing so! The only downside enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. neither Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
enforce Have leaders who are tough on crime. neither Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
neither Eliminate blighted housing. Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
Addison needs to encourage its people to go to church. They need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.		- need instruction on how to live right. They need to teach their children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.	neither children how to be loving, kind, generous, honest, respectful, good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime. good, and how to have self-control. There is no law against reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
reform having these qualities. These people need to learn to be content enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
enforce increase amount of police officers on the streets, arrest more enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
enforce Use stricter punishments to deter crime.
·		·
reform Do research to find out the reason for the increase in crime. Then		·
	reform	Do research to find out the reason for the increase in crime.Then

	Put the criminals in jails by updating and increasing the police force. Also get a neighborhood watch program started where civilians get involved with informing the police and providing video evidence of crimes for the courts. Install video cameras enforce	with high quality video capabilities in high crime areas to gather enforce	Get more police presents in the neighborhoods experiencing the I think that Addison needs to acknowledge the rates of its crimes enforce	and properly train and deploy police units around the enforce	I think it needs to be tougher on crime or get more police.
	the government and the security agencies need to make strick enforce	laws that can reduse the crime immediatly. the can also declear Addison needs to do a lot to arrest and change the situation.
	First, the security of the city needs to massively increase, welfare reform	and quality of living must increase and the need to be a sharp People should have more security cameras and locks in their enforce	homes. Maybe they should have something to defend
	1. Allow open carry so citizens can fight back. enforce	2. Enforce current laws, including jail time.
enforce	Increase surveillance to deter criminals enforce	Hire more cops. Citizens need to start neighborhood watches.
enforce	Go and protest in front of the police station to have them I think Addison needs to increase the police presense on the streets, but also do more to prevent crime. A gun buyback would be a good idea. Also, some social programs to help at risk youth both	would help reduce the number of criminals. This could be paid reform	Have a genuine need to care for people.
enforce	Increase policing to prevent violent crimes.
	Pressure the municipal government to direct more funding to reform	public services and away from militarizing police, which has been enforce	Reinforce its police force by hiring more officers to patrol areas I think they need to get the citizens involved and have a trusting reform	relationship with the citizens and the police reform	Neighborhoodwatch. More reform programs Addison needs to beef up security in the area and also met out enforce	harsher punishment to those who commit the crimes to deter reform	They need to create more jobs for people.
	Addison needs to vote in the right people into public office to reform	change the policy that will result in better crime control.
enforce	More police
	Do a study to find out what is the cause of the rise in crime and reform	find out what has worked in other cities to reduce crime Addison sounds like it may need some anger management courses or a be kind program. This man sounds disgruntled and reform	looks drunk. Maybe more programs for alcohol abuse.
neither	Need to set up neighborhood watch cameras enforce	hire more cops
enforce	Add more police force to the city.
enforce	more policing and harsher sentencing reform	Determine the root cause of why people are committing crime retorm enforce	Determine the root cause of why people are committing crime Deploy more law enforcement.

	Increase police funding which will allow an increase in patrols decreasing crime hopefully. Increase penalties assessed to criminals, specifically have penalties on the more severe side of the sentencing ranges to discourage would-be criminals.
	Prosecute more minor crimes that they potentially were releasing for in the past. Tighten gun laws in the city if that is enforce	what the violent crime is referring to. Overall just examine what They need to figure out the exact crimes and how to combat neither	them, like for example things such as stolen property or home Addison needs to increase police and security patrol in and enforce	around the city to guard against crime It's impossible to say without any type of true background information. I definitely do not believe the police force should be reform	funded though if that's what this is getting at. I believe the retorm	Create a universal basic income program for the city so that all reform	citizens have access to enough money to live.
TOTOTTI	Anything that helps with the desperation of a community will help crime. Fund and build schools and vocation centers, provide open and aesthetic public spaces, implement a citizen's dividend, roform
reform	or using police funding to hire and train social workers and Addison should first address poverty and make sure that reform	everyone is having their basic needs met.
	It's a complex issue. Addison needs to study the crimes and reform	determine root cause as a first step.
	Probably needs more police out and about enforcing the law.
enforce	More awareness and communication with the public on how to Hire more police, let the police do their jobs, punish criminals, enforce	and look out for each other.
	Use a neighborhood watch, get to know the community to see if enforce	strangers are lurking by, carry a weapon, phone the police of They need to invest more in education and social programs to reform	assist low income families.
	Reducing crime in a community requires a multi-pronged approach that involves a range of strategies and initiatives. Here are some potential strategies that could be effective for Addison: Increase community engagement: Encourage community members to be involved in crime prevention by fostering relationships between residents, businesses, and local law enforcement. This could include initiatives such as community policing programs, neighborhood watch groups, and community events.
	Improve lighting and security measures: Adequate lighting and security measures can help deter crime and make people feel safer. Addison could invest in improvements to street lighting, install surveillance cameras, and increase patrols in high-crime enforce	areas.
enforce	harsher punishments when the law is broken and have camera's

	Harsher punishments for criminals. Higher fines and longer enforce	sentences for every level of crime. Also death penalty for anyone reform	Figure out why crime rate has increaded Teloiiii	Addiso (Addison, Tx???) would probably need to start by increasing police patrols in problem areas, helping people and businesses increase their own personal security, and try to figure both	out WHY this increase is happening or what attracted crime to reform	Engage the community in ways that leads people to things other retorm	Have more police walking the streets, and increase the penalties enforce	for crime to act as a deterrent.
neither	It probably does need to in reality reteres	More police in problem areas, encourage citizens to call police if enforce	they see a crime being committed There are laws against crime and they should start being strictly enforced. There should be no progressive policies toward crime.
	Criminals should be in jail and they should stay there. Start giving enforce	the maximum sentences and do not let criminals out while they enforce	Addison needs to increase and strengthen security measures to enforce	Become Batman and fight crime and get cool side kicks neither	Not sure because it's not a simple issue Work closely with law enforcement on efforts such as citizens' crime watch and research specifics on actual crimes and enforce	locations and develop strategies to reduce crime.
reform	Speak to their local representative and/or news station to get The best solution Addison could put together is to gather a meeting with the neighbor who are interested fighting crime in the neighborhood and do a fight the crime march on regular neither	basis for set of days or month to fight the crime march. This neither	Focus on himself reform	Start a protest against it First, hire more police officers to increase patrols throughout the enforce	neighborhoods. Second, get an organized Neighborhood Watch Increase the police force and make more patrols in the enforce	community. Also make sure prosecutors bring criminals to court reform	Help poor people I think that addison needs to set a curfew for the city. Also, I enforce	think the city should make example out of people with longer jail Addison should reach out to its residents to learn about what's happening in their neighborhoods and to ask for their suggestions about how to deal with the problem. I would be hesitant to throw more police resources at the problem without reform	learning about what's really happening. I would also recommend Increase lighting. Increase patrols. Have residents keep their both	porch lights on. Encourage community watch groups enforce	Strict law and punishments for offenders neither	yes, crime is rising reform	More social programs enforce	Increase policing Increase police presence and look at what is causing the both	increased crime rate to work toward effective policy that helps

First thing Addison needs to do is investigate the reason for rise in crime. After that, it will be more clear what needs to both Addison has to issue a curfew or quarantine to minimize the Increase patrols around the city and also set up life services as mental health check ins. Provide support for people in n It seems like they may need to calm down a little bit. They probably have a lot of problems between citizens, because Let's see, I'm not in public policy and have only limited information here. I suppose I'd increase the police presence enforce make residents more aware of the steps needed to prevent enforce Add the presence of more police personel. Addison needs to increase police personel. Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborh that are dealing with the increased crimes. enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators neither I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevale They should also have a larger police force and enforce striugunishments for offenders of violent crime. There should a neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for a resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements are addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crim	such eed.
both Addison has to issue a curfew or quarantine to minimize the Increase patrols around the city and also set up life services as mental health check ins. Provide support for people in mit seems like they may need to calm down a little bit. They probably have a lot of problems between citizens, because Let's see, I'm not in public policy and have only limited information here. I suppose I'd increase the police presence enforce make residents more aware of the steps needed to prevent enforce Add the presence of more police personel. Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborhed that are dealing with the increased crimes. More police, well trained police. enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. enforce More police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevale They should also have a larger police force and enforce strip punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should a neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for a resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements are addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crim	such eed. the
both Addison has to issue a curfew or quarantine to minimize the Increase patrols around the city and also set up life services as mental health check ins. Provide support for people in mit seems like they may need to calm down a little bit. They probably have a lot of problems between citizens, because Let's see, I'm not in public policy and have only limited information here. I suppose I'd increase the police presence make residents more aware of the steps needed to prevent enforce Add the presence of more police personel. Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborhenforce that are dealing with the increased crimes. More police, well trained police. More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators idous it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled they hould also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should a neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for a resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements are addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are create awareness with various forms of advertisements are created awarenes	such eed. the Increase patrols around the city and also set up life services as mental health check ins. Provide support for people in n It seems like they may need to calm down a little bit. They probably have a lot of problems between citizens, because Let's see, I'm not in public policy and have only limited information here. I suppose I'd increase the police presence enforce make residents more aware of the steps needed to prevent enforce Add the presence of more police personel. Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborh that are dealing with the increased crimes. enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. enforce Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators it doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevale They should also have a larger police force and enforce strip punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should a neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for a resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements are addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crim	such eed. the reform as mental health check ins. Provide support for people in n It seems like they may need to calm down a little bit. They probably have a lot of problems between citizens, because Let's see, I'm not in public policy and have only limited information here. I suppose I'd increase the police presence enforce make residents more aware of the steps needed to prevent enforce Add the presence of more police personel. Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborh enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrol at detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevale They should also have a larger police force and enforce stri punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should al neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for ar resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements arc Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crin	the
It seems like they may need to calm down a little bit. They probably have a lot of problems between citizens, because Let's see, I'm not in public policy and have only limited information here. I suppose I'd increase the police presence enforce make residents more aware of the steps needed to prevent enforce Add the presence of more police personel. Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborh that are dealing with the increased crimes. enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. Have more police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators lidoubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled they should also have a larger police force and enforce string punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should also neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for a resident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are additional properties.	and neither probably have a lot of problems between citizens, because Let's see, I'm not in public policy and have only limited information here. I suppose I'd increase the police presence enforce make residents more aware of the steps needed to prevent enforce Add the presence of more police personel. Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborh that are dealing with the increased crimes. enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. enforce Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators neither I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled they should also have a larger police force and enforce strip punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should all neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for ar resident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are	and
Let's see, I'm not in public policy and have only limited information here. I suppose I'd increase the police presence enforce make residents more aware of the steps needed to prevent enforce Add the presence of more police personel. Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborh that are dealing with the increased crimes. enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. enforce Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators neither I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should all neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for aresident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are cated awareness.	and information here. I suppose I'd increase the police presence enforce make residents more aware of the steps needed to prevent enforce Add the presence of more police personel. Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborh enforce that are dealing with the increased crimes. enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. enforce Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled they should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should also neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for ar resident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and addison.
enforce Make residents more aware of the steps needed to prevent enforce Add the presence of more police personel. Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborh that are dealing with the increased crimes. enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. enforce Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators in I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled they should also have a larger police force and enforce string punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should also neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for are resident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and addison.
enforce Add the presence of more police personel. Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborh enforce that are dealing with the increased crimes. More police, well trained police. enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevale They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should a neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for a resident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison needs to increase police presence in the neighborh enforce that are dealing with the increased crimes. enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. enforce Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators in doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should also neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for ar resident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and addison.	oods enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. enforce Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled. They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should all neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for ar resident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities crimes.
enforce More police, well trained police. enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. enforce Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled. They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should all neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for are resident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities.
enforce More law enforcement presence enforce More police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. enforce Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators lighter I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperboom I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled. They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should also neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for arresident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are addison.
enforce Increase police presence, increased patrols, harsher penalties. Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled. They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should also neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for aresident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities.
enforce Increase police patrol and put the criminals in jail. Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevale They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should also neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for arresident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities.
Have more police patrols to detect crimes and make crimin feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled. They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should also neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for arresident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities.
feel they're less likely to get away with them, more and bet enforce police investigations to solve crimes and have perpetrators I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled. They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should also neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for arresident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities.	als neither I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevale They should also have a larger police force and enforce stric punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should al neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for ar resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crin neither I doubt it. The person seems to be using too much hyperbo I think Addison needs to have their police force focus on patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevale They should also have a larger police force and enforce stric punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should al neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for ar resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crin
patrolling very often in the areas where the crime is prevaled. They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should also neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for arresident who reports any criminal activities they witness and create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing criminal activities.	e.
They should also have a larger police force and enforce strict punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should also neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for an resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crim punishments for offenders of violent crime. There should all neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for ar resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements are Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crim	nt.
neighborhood watch in every neighborhood where crime is and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for ar resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements aro Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crim	t
and have incentives for the citizens that participate in their neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for ar resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements aro Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crim	so be neighborhood watch. There should also be incentives for ar resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements aro Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crin	bad resident who reports any criminal activities they witness an create awareness with various forms of advertisements aro Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crim create awareness with various forms of advertisements aro Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crin	У
Addison. Local businesses should also assist in reducing crin	d und ie by hiring security guards where the crime is prevalent as well.
Creating awareness for needed donations to the city should	also help with hiring more police officers and purchasing camera place all over the city. Signs should be posted that make potential criminals aware that they are being recorded as w	ell.
enforce Residents should also get free home security systems in the enforce Increase funding to fight crime.
reform Increase opportunities for impoverished areas.
Addison must work to make all anti-crime resources and structures are in place, fully staffed with competent worker attend to sodial conditions like homelessness and mental h	5; reform convene multiple public meetings to discuss the issue of cri Addison can reduce crime by coming together more as a	ealth;
community and rooting out the root causes of the crime in	ealth;
reform first place, from improving the standard of living for all residues	ealth; me Addison needs to increase it's police force to provide additi	ealth; me the enforce coverage and visibility to curb crime rates.	ealth; me the lents, enforce Add more police presence to neighborhoods.	ealth; me the lents, enforce	Increase police presence in the neighborhood.

reform	Quit drinking and maybe call his city government representative.
	The need to enlarge the police force to get more officers on the streets. Their presence alone would be a deterrence, but having enforce	offices around just to engage with and get to know the citizens To reduce crime in Addison, there are several steps that can be taken. First, the city should invest in more police officers and resources to increase patrol coverage and visibility in high-crime areas. Additionally, the city should work to improve communication and collaboration between law enforcement and community members. This would help to build trust and foster a reform	sense of safety in the city. Finally, Addison should invest in enforce	hire more police officers
	More policing and stricter punishment; more mental health reform	services; more job opportunities They should try to figure out what is the cause of crime. For example, if people are committing crimes because of economic reform	factors, then those in charge can try to find ways to increase the Invest in poor communities, so they have better mental health reform	and resources and don't have to turn to crime to survive.
	Hire more police, get better judges that prosecute, teach the reform	criminals that this behavior is not tolerable. jail time on first reform	Better policing and better citizen programs (neighborhood neither	nothing
reform	Enforce the law and start arresting more people. HIre more Depending if Addison has enough police or not they might need a bigger force or they may need more security cameras around enforce	the town. Are there bright lights in certain parts of town?
	A combination of increased police presence, harsher sentences enforce	for violent offenses, as well as programs to rehabilitate the roform	Addison needs to increase mental health and community reform	outreach options and make them more readily available. there really isn't enough information about the city to really say neither	what caused the problem in the first place. neither	Addison likely needs to address socioeconomic issues in the long-term, like housing and job creation. In the short-term, it likely reform	needs to help those who are homeless, crack down on illegal neither	HE NEEDS TO RELOCATE enforce	Addison needs to hire more police officers.
CHIOTCC	Educate people to be awarelock doors, be aware of enforce	surroundings. Hire more police and form neighborhood watch neither	People who know how to not cuss.
enforce	The crime needs to be reduced by having a police patrol on a
	The specific mention of crime lurking in every neighborhood brings to mind the Neighborhood Watch idea. Perhaps the neither	citizens in Addison could rotate someone in each neighborhood This is a multi level approach. They need more police, they need much tougher laws against crime, they need lawyer's, DA's enforce	Judges, etc to not let people off so easy and let repeat offenders enforce	A police presence

	Identify the times, places, and types of crime occurring more frequently. Step up cameras and police presence in theose areas.
enforce	perhaps do a community watch event, too.
	they nee to increase police patrols and make sentencing harsher.
enforce	Loosen their gun carry law for citizens. reform	They need to provide better resources First it needs to establish what the actual crime rate is and what crimes are of issue. It can then consider if any action needs to be neither	taken. And focus those actions on specific concerns if needed.
enforce	Hire more cops
	It's hard to say without more information. Crime is usually correlated with poverty, so it's likely that Addison needs more reform	government intervention to increase the amount of wealth there enforce	They need to have a curfew or have a bigger punishment for They need to determine what the source and driver of the crime is. They need to then determine if it's crime that police can both	handle or crime that needs to involve social workers.
enforce	There should be enough security system to protect the city.
	I believe the community of Addison needs to band together and reform	host events and programs to improve the lives of people in enforce	Hire more police and put more criminals behind bars.
	Addison needs to fire and replace cops with people who won't enforce leftist laws from taxes to seat belt laws to gun control to arresting christians for going to church during Covid so the police can focus on stopping actual crime like rape, murder, vandalism, robbery, and etc. By cops stopping their focus on revenue generation and enforcing the war on drugs, they can have the manpower to properly patrol the city and deter real crime. They can advise local residents on any things that makes their properties attractive to thieves. They can encourage citizens to enforce	arm themselves and be ready to defend themselves and their First off it would be nice to have more even minded and less profane people involved. Also people that seem to be less drunk. All of them need to return to the religious background of reform	the founding of the country. Addison has a sin problemthe Work on lowering the unemployment rate as well as offering job reform	training. Additionally more support for lower income brackets Addison needs to hire a public relations/crisis consultant and start holding town hall meetings where the public can respectfully voice their concerns. I have no idea how real the reform	crime problem actually is because I don't give "Not gonna lie" reform	Get all the blacks and mexicans outta the neighborhoods reform	Universal basic income.
	This is really difficult to provide any meaningful solutions to when there isn't any context to what kind of crimes are happening or what is or isn't being done about it currently.
	Generally, more security personnel and security cameras wouldn't be a terrible start in most cases. But you'd need to find both	the root cause of crime to really make big differences.
	and to the state of the state o the second and the state of the second second because in the Chara It needs to lock the criminals up and keep them in jail. Stop enforce	letting them out on bail. If you keep letting them out them will enforce	To deploy more police men on the streets of Addison amfa waa	Cameras need to be installed especially in high-crime areas.

enforce	Assistance from the state should be sought to increase the safety enforce	have more cops on the streets and a neighborhood watch
	If the city of Addison has the funding, I think they should increase their police enforcement. Improve training police training, and upgrade police tech. In addition to this, I think there should be programs set up to help its citizens get jobs doing constriction and city workers, to lower unemployment, this will both	have a ripple effect on crime as well. I would also suggest more DOLLI	The city managers need a meeting with the police force and put both	in some programs that will lessen crime with suggestions from DOTT	Addison needs to increase street lighting, security guards (on businesses) and also increase police surveillance in areas that are having crime issues. If the crimes are fueled by something in both	particular like drugs and/or unemployment, then increasing enforce	Make laws agaist the various crimes and use the police to emorce	There should be a greater presence of the police and enforce	imprisonment for at least 2 years for anyone who breaks the law emorce	Implement a universal basic income so the citizen's basic needs reform	are met. Most crime stems from financial desperation.
enforce	Add additional police.
CHIOTCC	Invest more in your police force. Heighten their morale and hire enforce	more to handle the calls reform	Community Involvement retorm	compare the differences of what is happening now and what was reform	happening before 3 years to the increase in crime and address Addison must implement preventative measures, which means increasing police patrols and also involving citizens in watching and reporting suspicious activities. In addition, those caught enforce	committing crimes must be incarcerated for a long period of community policing, getting the neighbors involved in the overall enforce	solution, because they have the biggest stake.
	I believe that the city needs to focus on providing economic reform	opportunities for its residents. Having a stable income can create more jobs, programs and oppurtunities for the people living in poverty. It seems most people turn to crime because reform	they have no other option so lets give them another option.
enforce	Increase police presence and have tougher consequences for I think Addison needs to improve it's police force and also look at both	proactive ways to prevent crime from happening in the first both	Invest in Police force and in social welfare programs reform	Find out what's causing the increase and deal with it.
	Step up the enforcement of all laws not just a few. Hire more enforce	police instead of defunding them.
	For one, we don't know the validity of this statement. But having enforce	a police presence actually walking beats is effective, and creating
enforce	more police

reform	Addison may need to increase funding of mental health neither	Take action and find ways to stop crime enforce	Hire more police to patrol this area.
	Getting tougher on crime has not been effective in the long term but might have some impact in the short term. A sociological explanation of crime suggests the need to focus more resources reform	on the social roots of crime in order to prevent crime from You guys need to invest in mental health programmesAnd, mental facilities. "Asylums," if you will. You will also need to increase your Law Enforcement ranksAnd, you know, install more Hi-Def, tamper-proof cameras around. If you can't afford both	any of this, then be prepared to have more of your people, enforce	Addison can start a neighborhood watch, working closely with enforce	I think a strong legal system needs to be formulated.
enforce	Employee more police officers I don't know, trying to address large scale issues is a waste of neither	time. The worried citizens should just move.
enforce	Lock the doors and arm himself.
enforce	Increase police patrols, ask citizens to form watch groups.
	Addison needs to invest more in crime prevention and intervention programs, such as those that focus on early childhood education and job training. The city also needs to invest more in community building initiatives, such as those that bring together law enforcement and local communities to strengthen relationships and foster understanding and trust.
	Lastly, Addison needs to prioritize and fund initiatives that provide better access to mental health and substance abuse services, as these are often underlying causes of criminal behavior. For instance, the city could allocate resources to reform	creating a dedicated mental health hotline and providing training I'd say that the current police force needs to rethink its strategy enforce	of deployment during each shift. Apparently they're not in
	I THINK A BETTER POLICE PRESENCE WOULD BENEFIT ADDISON. I enforce	ALSO THINK A NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH MIGHT HELP neither	stop listening to police inflate statistics to get more money neither	Get a new reporter! Too many opinion words were used in the reform	Vote!
reform	Probably Addison will need to create more jobs for its people Increase police presence and patrol frequency as a deterrent, as enforce	well as increase penalties for crimes (jail time).
_	Maybe Addison needs neighborhood watch program and to enforce	increase police presence in certain areas where crime is more enforce	Increase the number of policemen and conduct community Addison needs to assess the causes and conditions that have lead to this point in the city and it's issue. Probably a committee reform	is not the best answer? I don't know what they should do but I reform	Increase community services so people will commit less crimes enforce	Buy a gun and if you see someone doing something horrible help Addison needs to improve its education system so that children reform	are taught to solve problems rather than create more through

	In my opinion, to reduce crime in Addison, the city needs to take a comprehensive approach. This may include increasing police patrols in high-crime areas, implementing community policing enforce	programs to foster trust between police and residents, and I think Addison needs to station officers in high traffic crime enforce	areas and increase the penalty of those crimes.
reform	Keep violent criminals out of society enforce	Needs to get tougher on it, and increase police presence reform	Help people out of the economic conditions that make them I think they need to catch more criminals, if crime is really happening in every neighborhood then either the police are enforce	underfunded and don't have enough officers out in the public or neither	Have some kind of neighborhood watch i think it is a multi step solution to solve the rise in crime. they should enact community policing so a police presence is shown in the community. they would also benefit from neighborhood enforce	watch programs. furthermore, there should be stiffer penalties Ciliorec	Having a visible police presence in high-crime areas can help deter criminal activity, and community policing efforts can help enforce	build trust and collaboration between law enforcement and neither	Start a neighborhood watch patrol.
Heithei	That depends on the objective situation in Addison, rather than this person's clearly bitter, biased and subjective perspective. It also depends on what type of crime is becoming more common or is common in general. In general, crime is often connected to socioeconomic factors like poor job availability, low availability of extracurricular or recreational activities, and poverty and the economic situation in general. For instance, if the rise in crime is rafarm
reform	particularly prevalent amongst youth, it would be prudent to: A) h a t h	Have cops walk the beat, encourage better lighting in public both	areas, and force teenagers into after-school programs.
	Addison needs to increase police presence and gentrify the bad enforce	areas. This forces some of the criminals out and will reduce Crime is a result of poverty and lack of opportunity. The only real way to address it is to implement massive changes that bring about a healthier local economy. There's no quick solution, reform	but the first step is investing in a quality education system of enforce	Community Policing enforce	deploying harsher punishments.
enforce	Start a neighborhood watch, have more patrols in the crime I am not sure what Addison needs to do to reduce crime. Maybe they need to hire more police officers to patrol. Or enforce enforce	stricter penalties for crime. Perhaps they need to petition to Find ways to create programs that help those communities have reform	a stronger bond to help lower crime.
	Hire more police to be more present and make sure to prosecute enforce	crimals when they are caught enforce	It needs to have a stronger police department neither	Create a community crime watch where other's work together

	Create a neighborhood watch program and empower the both	citizens to protect their neighbors. Also provide meaningful jobs
reform
	Reduce poverty Addison needs to be reinforced with more officers.
enforce
reform	Identify the source of the crime and address it.
	They need to increase police protection and visibility.
enforce	Neighborhood watches having people looking out and reporting Addison needs to address income and job opportunities for reform	residents to deter he need for violent crime.
	They should look and see what the crime statistics and see what type of crimes and which areas they happen. They could then enforce	look at adding additional police patrols in the area during the enforce	increase police patrols and get community involvement In order to reduce crime in Addison, the city should focus on increasing police presence, providing funding for crime prevention initiatives, and investing in community programs that aim to reduce poverty and inequality. Additionally, engaging with enforce	residents to build trust in the police and implementing policies enforce	Addison needs to increase community policing.
enforce	Enact stricter laws and employ more police to monitor the I think there is a genetic component to criminality, and so I would sterilize repeat offenders of serous crimes who we had failed to rehabilitate. I would also separate these people we enforce	couldn't rehabilitate from society and put them in penal Have more policemen driving around, have former prisoners talk to junior high and high school students about staying out of reform	trouble, mentorship programs, neighborhood watch groups I would want to review the police coverage and compare it to when and where these crimes are occurring. There needs to be enforce	a discussion and plan for directing resources to the crime areas.
reform	Vote at his local elections enforce	Increase police enforcement.
	It depends what type of crime we are talking about but having a enforce	greater police presence in general might be a good start.
enforce	They need to get tough on crime and increase police presence.
	Addison needs to hire more police officers and have them take enforce	an active approach in attacking the sources of the crime.
enforce	Have more police officers patrolling neighborhoods.
enforce	Increase spending on police and lock up violent criminals.
	Either increase the penalties associated with the crimes or have enforce	more police officers on patrol.
enforce	Double police presence.
Cilioroc	They probably need to look into what the source of all the crime is and what types of crimes are being committed first. Then, reform	maybe add additional security measures or work on helping the enforce	Get more police officers and based on the picture cut down on reform	Ban the use of firearms enforce	better training for police

	It needs to increase police presence with more patrols. It needs to get community invovlement through neighborhood watch programs and "see something, say something" initiatives. It also needs the justice system to hand out stiff sentences. Oh, and enforce	targeting known criminals and arresting them for any minor Crime is every neighborhood is alarming and need to station the police and undercover agents to stop and get the real problem behind it. Is this raising due to some religious issue or unemployment? Majority of time Unemployment is the reason reform	behind it so would suggest state/county to start initiative to enforce	Increase the amount of law enforcement present.
reform	Addison needs to get into a anger management program and enforce	to get more police Work with community leaders to address the root causes of crime. This can help to prevent crime from happening in the first place.
	Invest in education and job training. This can help to reduce poverty and unemployment, which are two major factors that contribute to crime. Investing in social programs. Studies have shown that investing in social programs, such as education, job training, and housing assistance, can help to reduce crime. These programs can help to lift people out of poverty and provide them reform	with the resources they need to succeed.
Teloiiii	1. Explain this to the citizens to be aware and call the police, if they see anything suspicious.
	2. Train the police to take care of violent situations without enforce	being violent themselves.
eniorce	THE CRIME ISSUES IS BIG PROBLEM IN THE UNITED STATES AND
	IN MY MIND THE BEST WAY TO DEAL WITH THIS ISSUES IS TO FOCUS ON THE EDUCATION OF YOUNG PEOPLE. PROVIDING A BETTER EDUCATION IN AREAS WITH HIGH CRIME RATES WILL OVER TIME WORK AND PROVIDE EACH CHILD A CHANCE TO
reform
L - 11	Neighborhood watch, form groups and watch each others both	property, use non pepper spray and non-leathal to detur To reduce crimes, they need to work with people to find out how they can be protected. Also up the amount for surveillance reform	available for the public and private places where crimes happen.
	Figure out the root of the violent crimes. That must be solved reform	before the crime can be reduced.
	He needs to stop complaining and come up with some concrete neither	ideas to stop crime in his neighborhood.
enforce	Addison needs to increase police presence in town.
	Depends on the source of the crime rise. Increase law enforcement and devote resources to creating a new culture. If the issue is redneck culture either white or black there is not both	much hope but to convince them that the majority culture is Addison needs to enforce its laws. It needs to increase the enforce	number of police officers that it has. And it needs to increase the enforce	In my opinion they need to have more police present enforce	more cops

	It needs to find what's happening in neighborhoods and reform	investigate the problem thoroughly.
reform	Should help the community teach the youth and kids ways to Addison needs to adjust the root of the issue. Are there socioeconomic issues? Is the crime particularly committed by these groups? If so then establishing community outreach reform	groups to help these groups realize there is a better way of like Crime is generally a problem associated with poverty. Addison reform	needs to help its poorest citizens in order to reduce crime.
	I don't know what he needs to do to reduce crime. Maybe make reform	the community more friendly by doing things together.
	In order to reduce crime, people need money. Provide more jobs reform	and you'll see a decrease in violent crime.
enforce	More police patrols.
	Addison will need to increase the effectiveness of its law enforcement by both employing more officers and training more skilled new ones. In addition, Addison will need a better both	educational system to keep kids from entering into a life of set up neighhorbood watch teams to make sure crimes are not enforce	committed or increase the presence of police in these areas Look into economic opportunities to divert the attitude that one needs to steal or rob (if that is part of the crime problem), address any economic inequalities, increase street lighting or even add public surveillance cameras particularly in the high-crime areas, meet with the community for feedback of concerns reform	and solutions such as forming neighborhood watches, increase Step up police presence. Begin neighborhood watches. Have tip enforce	lines available. Enforce stricter sentences on criminals.
enforce	To make stricter laws and put patrols of law enforcement on the
	They need a multi-pronged solution, as one idea will not stop something, as big, widespread, and complex. They may need both	legislation changes, neighborhood crime watches, and changes in First Addison should find out if there has been a rise in crime over the past three years. If their has they should think of ways of addressing it such as adding more police. Addison should also enforce	review the ways it has been dealing with crime if there is a Addison needs to have extra police patrolling. Have their enforce	residents be hyper vigilant and be on the look out for suspicious reform	Have more social services available to people neither	The city needs to study the situation and see if the claims of a Addison needs to increase policing, plus address any social problems in the area. Suspects with a criminal record, or in a more severe case, should not be released on little to no bail.
	Security cameras should be increased, particularly in the most common areas for crimes. An education program should be reform	offered on how best to protect your family and possessions from invest in the poor to help them get through life, steady pay, gun reform	restrictions. better mental health servcies naithar	The city of Addison needs to collect and compile data to verify these claims of increased crime rates.

neither rafarm	I think Addison needs to add more helping programs for the reform	people who have turned to violent crime to get them the help the city should invest in programs that encourage an increased sense of community and social responsibility. This can include reform	initiatives like after school programs and job training, which can Citizens need to start holding each other accountable and also look out for each other more. I feel the more unity their is within reform	the community the easier it will be to lower the crime.
both	Increase community outreach and increase police presence in enforce	Put more police on the streets and increase the Police both	Increase security on homes and businesses, increase Crimewatch enforce	Have more law enforcement Increase police presence and install better lighting and cameras on business and streets. They also need to address the issue of poverty and housing insecurity. If people are properly housed reform	and employed they are less likely to commit crime. People steal reform	Addison would improve access to social services in order to enforce	Increase funding for the police department and focus resources More out reach programs, places for the youth to safely stay at, reform	and better police training.
enforce	They need to get more police officers to patrol the city and put reform	He needs to seek help from the City Council or bring public Addison should provide job opportunities to ex-convicts. A lot of people go back into crime because they have no legitimate way to better themselves due to having gone to prison previously. reform	Addison can also improve public education in the area and enforce	Hire more police reform	Outside security cameras in all neighborhoods enforce	Increase police presence in the city.
	Putting criminals in jail would be the best answer. Crime is high enforce	everywhere and no one has an answer.
	The city of Addison needs to increase the severity of enforce	punishments for crimes to deter and reduce the overall crime enforce	enables cops to connect with locals and prevent crime rather Improve mental health provision, create opportunities for jobs reform	and education for all individuals, set up a community action I would start by talking to the community and forming a crime watch. I would forms groups to help with informing the community of what's going on and ask for solutions. I would ask the community to work together to come up with a plan to fight enforce	the crime and help the police. I would also meet with the police Addison needs to petition government for police patrol and to enforce	also enhance community vigilance and report any unusual Addison needs to implement new laws or programs to reduce enforce	crime and make the city safer.

	I suppose it depends on the ages of the people committing them.
	If it is younger people performing acts of violent crime, then early intervention in at risk neighborhoods is good, but if it's both	older people committing violent crime, then you need more I think the best way to reduce crime is to raise wages. People don't steal catalytic converters for fun. Corporations have stolen our dignity and replaced it with fear and grinding. We need to reform	take it back and then we can live with each other in peace, love, enforce	enforce the laws and police presence Hire more police, harsher punishments, advocate for citizens enforce	arming themselves to be protected It needs to hire more police officers to patrol neighborhoods and enforce	investigate crimes and it needs to promote a good relationship
enforce	More police
enforce	More patrols, crime watch.
enforce	Hire more police officers and make the penalties for committing enforce	He needs to solicit police help to advise what he and other enforce	Increase policing and resources to prevent crime enforce	Increase spending on police.
	In order to reduce crime and violent crime in Addison, it is important for the community to work together. This includes increasing police presence on the streets, providing more resources for youth programs that can provide an alternative to criminal activities, engaging with local businesses and organizations about safety initiatives they can implement in their own areas of influence, creating public service announcements that educate citizens about how they can help prevent crimes reform	from happening around them. Additionally, educating people on Advocate for more policing in the areas with crime. This includes enforce	going to local meetings and speaking out, and voting for people enforce	Take it back to old days when hangings take place everyday at enforce	Increase police patrol in the area.
enforce	Increase police presence
enforce	Increase the number of police and enforce laws when a suspect Cinorec	Addison needs to increase the number of police officers and make their presence known on the streets particularly in the neighborhoods. Neighborhoods need to set up community enforce	watches to monitor and report criminal activity to the increased Cinorec	Addison should look into the reasons why the crime is occurring reform	and act based off that, not a drunk man's rant.
enforce	More support from law enforcement
enforce	Hire more police officers CHIOICE	Addison should increase the number of police officers as well as enforce	how often they patrol. In addition, Addison should have harsher eilloice	They need to increase police presence in the neighborhood and encourage people to report what they see and punish them to antarca	chourage people to report what they see and pullish them to enforce
reform	Vote out their Soro's funded soft on crime DA as soon as Vote out their Soro's funded soft on crime DA as soon as They need more police canvassing the area looking for people Vote out their Soro's funded soft on crime DA as soon as enforce	Both increase police presence and enforce the laws. Quite Give a bus ticket to repeat offenders in leu of jail time, signing a enforce	waver with the promise of never coming back under the threat Addison should find out what its increasing crime and figure out reform	ways to mitigate crime to make it happen less often.

neither	Addison needs to make it clear that crime will not be tolerated
enforce	hire more police
	Address the problem areas of the city with increased vigilance enforce	and singling out the guilty parties.
	I believe Addison needs to increase their police force and set up enforce	roving patrols to attack the crime that the city is dealing with.
reform	Better education for starters. Then programs to help people.
enforce	More vigilance and public involvement in observing and enforce	Increase policing, and involve social services in policing.
	Addison needs to increase the police patrols of Addison and have enforce	the police arrest more people who commit crimes.
	have officers patrol streets and get to know people and causes of enforce	those committing crimes.
enforce	They need to likely step up police patrols and engage the
enforce	Increase police presence Increase funding for law enforcement. This funding should be enforce	used to increase the number of officers on the force and Uptick in police presence, even if that means hiring more cops.
	Also, identify the criminals and if many are young, develop programs to get them off the street and give them a purpose. If both	poverty is a factor, do neighborhood outreach to make sure Increase police patrol, city needs to install surveillance cameras both	and people need to be more vigilante Jobs, economic opportunity, and a way for people to build up a reform	life. Treatment for substance abuse.
	The city of Addison needs to hire more policemen so that more law enforcement can patrol the neighborhoods to deter crime.
enforce	Also the city needs to get the public involved by encouraging Addison would need to make punishment for crime more severe enforce	and advertise the increase to deter more crime.
	Vote out current policy makers or confront them at public meetings. Organize communities to take action. Buy and both	become educated on proper gun ownership to protect yourself if Addison needs to start supporting police and perhaps start a enforce	neighborhood watch program to help minimize crime in Provide more opportunities for lower income people to get reform	ahead so that they don't have to resort to crime.
	I suppose it needs to understand the root of the problem and reform	then agree upon ways to improve the issues.
	Addison needs to understand why the crime is happening.
	Addressing social issues could help reduce crime. Providing jobs, low-cost education, and food security programs could help. Also reform	rehabilitating those who have already committed crimes so enforce	Take more stringent decisions to tackle crime and put more F

	Addison needs to figure out the root of the crimes and offer resources to help curb that behavior, if it's violent crimes, offer reform	more counseling and mental health resources, and if it's stealing, both	Addison needs a focus on crime prevention and police I think that Addison needs to get more Law Enforcement as well enforce	as a better DA to prosecute the crimes that are taking place.
enforce	INcrease police monitoring in the area neither	They need to reduce it because it has taken over the city Hire more police officers, catching the criminals, and actually charging them with the crime they committed and not letting enforce	them back on the street the next day, like in so many liberal Addison needs to take a multi-pronged approach to reducing crime. The first step should be to increase the presence of law enforcement in the city, making sure that all areas are adequately patrolled and that any suspicious activity is reported and investigated. Additionally, the city should invest in crime prevention programs, such as neighborhood watch groups, and work with the community to build relationships between citizens and law enforcement. Finally, the city should focus on providing both	opportunities for those at risk of committing crimes, such as job Crime could be reduced in Addison by recruiting more personel and equiping them adequately to fight crime. There should also be an increase in surveillance in every part of Addison.Crime targets should be identified and swiftly dealt with to make the streets and neighborhood safe, the focus should be at the crime both	hotspots. Also security personel should be proactive and come up Addison needs to employ more police officers, start both	neighborhood crime watches and invest in cameras to be placed enforce	Be alert and report when needed neither	maintain current policies, this guy seems to drunk to have a Addison needs to create more job opportunities for people and reform	try help the people committing crimes rehabilitate. In addition, Addison could increase police force size to ensure that crime is enforce	being limited as much as possible.
	I do not have enough information to guess what Addison needs to do to reduce crime. But, instuting programs to reduce recidivism, like those that help felons successful reenter society after incarceration may help. Taking whatever steps possible to reform	ensure jobs and a living wage are available to all, especially those neither	Try to narrow down what specific crime is happening and focus Typically when crime is on the rise, it's time to start investing in reform	social programs to help ease the burdens of our citizens.
	Addison needs to talk to his cities Mayor about it as well as both	report any crimes he sees happening to the police.
	Institute programs to reduce receidivism, such as programs to help felons successfully reenter society after incarceration; reform	ensure jobs and a living wage are available to all people and reform	increase education reform	Address what's causing the crime and develop a strategy for 3

enforce	need more police to be visible on the streets enforce	Increase police staff and get harder on criminals.
enforce	Get more police Cinorec	Not enough info to prescribe solutions, but generally, increase enforcement of pre-violence unlawful activity, improve both	economic outlook in impoverished areas, reduce addiction and botti	Addison should increase resources devoted to mental health reform	programs that can help people in crisis or struggling mentally.
neither	reduce his anger and think of ideas
	-
enforce	Better police force It doesn't seem what they are doing is working. Looks like they reform	need new people in charge. Time to fire and hire.
	Hire more police to patrol the crime areas, and remove any enforce	District Attorneys who will not charge criminals.
	Increase the social net and make sure people are fed, housed, reform	and less prone to crime to begin with because they are happy.
reform	Get rid of non-whites I would suggest setting up a neighborhood watch system so enforce	people can look out for each other. We need tougher gun laws enforce	Hire more police officers
neither	reduce crime
	Addison needs to first identify what is causing the increase in crime. These kinds of things do not happen for no reason. Once a reform	root cause is identified, they need to work with the community reform	Talk to his community about the crime neither	he needs to leave the neighbourhood reform	start a commission to study who/what/where/when/why of
	To reduce crime, he needs to be on a look out to repeat what he both	sees to the police and to own a gun to protect himself.
enforce	They need more police presence. More patrols.
reform	to expand education to help the people
	The police and other law enforcement agencies should perform community outreach so that they are visible and show concern reform	for the people living in Addison. The city council can assess basic hang some criminals in public and promote a gun carry life style enforce	where shooting criminals is rewarded instead of prosecuted neither	The prayer of believers calling on the Lord God.
nettrer	I believe that there should be programs that will help get individuals out of the urge of violence and show them there is a reform	better way than throwing your life away for something petty.
enforce	Have more police patrolling all the neighborhoods of Addison.
	Addison needs to identify if there is a pattern to the violence. Is it random? Is it amongst teens and young people? I believe Addison will most likely need to increase police presence. In doing so, the police should not only just drive around, but also · ·	participate in community activities in an effort to build reform reform	community trust. There should also be activities for the youth to Increase community support program and work to improve the

	Addison should increase police presence, community policing, targeted enforcement, address the root causes for the violent or both	any other form of crime and crime prevention programs can also Addison needs to bring more awareness to the huge problem of crime and violence. By trying to stamp out the concerns they enforce	should also make sure that people are held accountable for their